Assistant General Counsel/Records Officer
Mayor's Office of Contract Services
253 Broadway, 9th Floor
New York, NY 10007

Dear Ms. Kim:

On September 5, 2019, your office responded to our FOIL request FOIL-2019-002-00643 and wrote:

“Your request has been received. Unfortunately, it cannot be processed because it does not provide enough information to identify the records you would like to receive. Please clarify your request.”

Today, I am filing an updated records request to clear up any confusion.

I am seeking information about an online procurement solution for NYC government agencies contained in the electronic email boxes, calendars, appointments, tasks and associated attachments for these two individuals:

- Michael Owh, former Director of the Mayor's Office of Contract Services and New York City Chief Procurement Officer
- Guy Oliveri, former Executive Director of Procurement Innovation at the Mayor's Office of Contract Services.

Specifically, I want all communications to or from the following individuals:

- Samir Khushalani, KPMG
- Anthony Dalessio, KPMG
- Lorna Stark, KPMG
- Alan Rosenberg, RG Group
- Daniel Amzallag, Ivalua
- Amol Joshi, Ivalua.

dated during the period January 1, 2014 through February 1, 2018 that contain any of the following terms:

- KPMG
- Ivalua
- John Boeck
- Michael Owh
- testbed.

If there are any fees for searching or copying these records, please inform me if the cost will exceed $100.

I look forward to hearing from you within five business days the date when these records will be provided. If you cannot make these records available within 20 days from your acknowledgment, please let me know why and provide a date certain, within a reasonable period under the circumstances, when the records will be made available.

If you deny any or all of this request, please cite each specific exemption that justifies withholding the requested information and notify me of the appeal procedures available to me under the law.

Thank you for your attention to this request. Please contact me directly if you have any questions.

Regards,
